

General Fundraisers:

Purdy's for Easters, freezie sales, Spring picture sales, possible Yearbook
Freezie's were discussed; there are boxes at the school and Mr. Ryan and Sonya will have a look at the expiry dates.
Family photo's: the spring ones were decided to do every 2 year's.
Mother's day gifts: Jinger and Sonya will discuss and possibly look into Renata mentioned doing a pub night. It was decided to table until Spring and see how things go with respect to COVID.

Principal's report, Mr. Larry Ryan:

Thank you to PAC and all parents for the warm welcome. It has been a great 2.5 week's; great start. Staff have helped while learning way around school.

Upcoming in February: random acts of kindness. Ms Woods has been spearheading this.

Next week: pink shirt week. Feb 24th will be an emergency drill: lock down, hold and secure.

Feb 25 is a professional day; no school for kids.

March 7 will be a earthquake drill.

March 10 report cards to go out via parent portal, MyEd

March 13 is last day before school.

District is going to be coming down with easing of COVID protocols; will let us know. Hopefully the kids will be in less zones and be able to play more.

We may start to be looking for parent volunteers, (pending new COVID guidelines) for the fruit and vegetable program. Breakfast coordinator, Joc will be stepping down and will be looking for volunteers for that as well.

Grade 5 grad ceremony is pending right now, re: COVID guidelines and we know more of what is allowed and not allowed.

DPAC report:

Unfortunately, Victoria was not able to make meeting, but per DPAC meeting minutes, they have some executive positions open if anyone is interested; otherwise, not much else on the minutes.

Purdy's Easter Fundraiser:

Lynda will start to get things organized. Wendy will do up some flyers again once Lynda gets dates and advertising will start prior to Spring Break.

Ongoing fundraisers were discussed: Port Moody Liquor Store, Cobbs Bread in Suttor Brooke, Babysitting course and Stay at Home course.

Jinger mentioned a sushi place that also does year long fundraising. Will look into other ongoing/ year long fundraiser or if anyone knows of something, we will look to set up.

Next Meeting Date: April 13, 2022 Wednesday at 6:30pm

Meeting Adjourned: 7:24pm
