ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Kimberly Blackstock is a local practicing artist regularly exhibiting in galleries throughout Greater Vancouver and is represented by ArtWorks Gallery in Yaletown.

When not in her studio painting she instructs visual arts to both adults and children at The Port Moody Arts Centre as well as in school district 43.

Well recognized for her active involvement with children and the arts in her community Kimberly believes it is important to share her knowledge and passion for the arts with the children and provide them with the tools and encouragement they need to explore and develop their own individual creative expression.
