Explore your Possibilities Event

Gleneagle Secondary Leadership 12 students have organized a career discovery event called Explore your Possibilities. This event will put 9 speakers under the spotlight from a variety of career fields and takes place on May 15, 2026, from 6:00-8:30pm at Gleneagle Secondary. All students of SD43 from grades 9-12 are invited to attend, and it will be a great opportunity to discover new career paths!

Volunteers Needed

SD43 summer learning program is looking for volunteers. Successful volunteers will be placed in local elementary or middle classrooms and earn necessary volunteer hours as well as a reference letter from their sponsor teacher. Spots are limited, submit a completed application early. In most cases, only students who can commit to and be available for all instructional days should apply. The application is due by Friday, June 5, 2026.
