SPORTS

NEW TURF FIELD – Closed

As of Monday morning, the new turf field will be CLOSED due to Construction of the spotter booths. This closure includes lunch-time activities on the field. Students/classes are NOT PERMITTED on the field until further notice. Thanks for your cooperation.

CENTAURS HOCKEY PLAYOFFS- SATURDAY*NEW*

Friday night curfew had been set for the Centaurs hockey Club as they prepare for Saturday's Playoffs. The 1st place Centennial Centaurs faceoff against the 4th seed Prince of Wales Cucumbers- 11am at Planet Ice #4 Saturday morning. The finals are set for 5pm later that day. Bring a hoodie, jacket, and a blanket (rink is cold) and come out to cheer the team on.

SENIOR GIRLS' SOCCER*NEW*

Cent scored 4 minutes in when Kiera Scott volleyed home a perfect cross from Kaitlyn Johnson. We controlled possession the rest of the half and created several chances but couldn't add another. Just before half Riverside got a free kick which keeper Katrina Robinson parried off the crossbar. The ball fell to the Rapids attacker, but Robinson was able to smother the point-blank shot. 1-0 at Half.

Early in the 2nd Scott netted the insurance marker. Cent controlled play the rest of the way to secure the win. Kudos to an airtight backline (Kate Smith, Dani Coss, Ava Ferreira, Rachael Cardarelli & Kiera Scott) who didn't give up a shot on goal other than the free kick and to Kaitlan Cerney in MF. Cent advances to the Fraser North Final next Thursday (2:00 at Cent) and more importantly qualifies the team for the Provincial Championships (June 1-2-3 in Cloverdale). Congrats ladies!!!

SR BOYS' RUGBY NEW

The Centaurs played well again despite heavy rain and wind for most of the day. Game results were Cent 17 Maple Ridge 0, Cent 5 STM 7 and Cent 19 Maple Ridge 10.

Next on the schedule is the FV North Playoffs at Burnaby Lake Wed May 18, with a trip to the BC 7's Tournament on the line.
