New at HWSS Library

"All too many kids of color get "the talk." The talk about where to keep their hands, how to wear their clothes, how to speak, how to act around police . . . a talk about survival in a racist world. But white kids don't get this talk. Instead, they're barely spoken to about race at all - and that needs to change. The Other Talk begins this much-needed conversation for white kids. In an accessible, anecdotal, and honest account from his own life, Brendan Kiely introduces young readers to white privilege, unconscious bias, and allyship."
