Daily Announcements

Date: September 29, 2016

Good Morning	I'm _____, I'm _____, and I'm _____, and these are the morning announcements:
--------------	---

Beginning Band

Even though Beginning Band has had two rehearsals already, it's still not too late to join! We welcome anyone who wants to learn to play an instrument and likes to have fun. If you are a no-fun person, don't bother to show up. Ask Mr. Balsler how to join, he's got the 411. He'll help you choose an instrument and get everything you need to become a musician! Which is the best way to be cool at school.

Grade 8 Boys Volleyball!

Hark! Listen!!! Grade 8 boys! Our first game, next Wednesday Oct 5th, is at Home! No worry for drivers, just make sure you get in your permission forms!

Spirit Squad

Reminder that there is a Spirit Squad meeting today at lunch in the Dramus room.

Picture Orders

Picture orders are due in to the office today if families are not ordering online.

Have a good day! ☺
