Art Club meeting today bring your lunch – see you there!

Happy Diwali! Today is the first day of Diwali. Diwali is a holiday that started in India and is now celebrated around the world. It is an important celebration for Hindus, Jains and Sikhs. It is like a Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Eve combined! Diwali is called the festival of lights. Rows of lamps are lit both inside and outside during the holiday. Light represents triumph of light over dark and the power of good over evil. Clay lamps can be seen lining streets and floating down rivers. Diwali begins today and it lasts for five days. Happy Diwali everyone!
