Today is the second day of Diwali. Diwali is a holiday that started in India and is now celebrated around the world. It is an important celebration for Hindus, Jains and Sikhs. It is like a Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Eve combined! Diwali is called the festival of lights. Rows of lamps are lit both inside and outside during the holiday. Light represents triumph of light over dark and the power of good over evil. Clay lamps can be seen lining streets and floating down rivers. Happy Diwali everyone!
