Daily Announcements

Monday, March 07, 2022

Good morning.

We'll be back in 30 seconds with your morning announcements.

Here are your announcements:

Greetings Yearbook Club! It's go time! We will be having an important meeting today at lunch. This will be a busy week for us as we work towards our next big deadline on Friday. We need to plan for the week and to really dig into our pages. Come out if you can. See you there!

Intramural Basketball will take place today at Lunch. Court 1 is the Hillcrestians vs Blazing Torpedos and on Court 2 is the Tigers vs Lakers. Unfortunately there will no spectators today.

Today is the last day to donate electronic waste. Please drop it off to the gray folding table outside of the Music Room.

Reminder to the HLC we will be meeting tomorrow at lunch in the MPR. Please head directly there at 12:24pm tomorrow!

Blue team teachers are on supervision this week.
