Daily Announcements

Thursday, May 19, 2022

Good morning.

We'll be back in 30 seconds with your morning announcements.

Here are your announcements:

Hey Nat?

Yes, Camden?

Guess What?

What?

The Hillcrest Spirit Assembly is almost here! Only ONE MORE sleep!

How should teams dress?

Everyone should show their school spirit and dress in their team colours. Teams will earn points for their spirit and showing their colours, as well as their participation in the events we have planned.

It is going to be amazing and a lot of fun! There will be a prize for the winning team!

See you there ;)

Man, is it ever hot today...

Yeah, wouldn't it be nice if we had a frozen treat to cool us down...

SAY NO MORE! The Social Justice Club is selling Freezies, some chips and pop next Wednesday and Thursday in the Drama Stage Room for a loonie each! All profits will go towards supporting BC Cancer Research.

NO WAY! I'm going to write that down so I don't forget to bring my money.

So that's NEXT WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY in the Drama Stage Room at LUNCH, right?

Yup! I wonder which colour freezie I should choose...

The SOGI Club is selling a variety of bracelets to show support for the LGBTQ+ community. Come to the Red Team Doors at the outside lunch bell and make your own or purchase a pre-made one.

Grade 8 Intramurals are cancelled today as the gym is closed for tonight's Band concert. All teams will play tomorrow.
