Good morning.

We'll be back in 30 seconds with your morning announcements.

Here are your announcements:

Next week we will be having our final Spirit Week. It will be the theme of Summer Spirit!!!

On Monday, we will kick off with a "Lazy Day" where students can wear pjs or sweats to start the week.

On Tuesday, we will have a Neon/Tie dye day.

Wednesday is outrageous outfits;

Thursday is Silly Socks/Mismatched shoes and Friday is Tropical Vacation day.

For every day that you participate, you can get a slip of paper to write your name in for a daily prize draw! We will draw daily prizes and the daily winners can pick up their prizes from the office. On Friday, the top five classes with the most participation will have a prize delivered to their classrooms. Help us celebrate the last full week of school by joining in our Summer Spirit week.
