Daily Announcements

Thursday, September 15, 2022

Good morning.

We'll be back in 30 seconds with your morning announcements.

Here are your announcements:

Have you watched Stranger Things and thought, "I'd also like to battle with Vecna and Demogorgons."

Well, now's your chance come join the Hillcrest Dungeons and Dragons Club.

The first meeting of the D&D Club will be on Tuesday, September 20th just after lunch eating time - in Mr. Holbrook's room. That's room 120 across from the Multi-Purpose Room.

Remember.....in D&D it's all fun and games until someone loses an eye.Then, it's a critical hit!

All concert band students are reminded to hand in their registration sheets to Mrs. Gallelo in room 151. Your first rehearsal is Wednesday September 21st in the gym at 7:45am.

Any girl who has signed up or would like to sign up for choir, please meet Mrs. Gallelo in the MPR at nut break today.

Have a _____ Thursday!
