Dungeon Masters in Training. We meet after school in Mr. Holbrook's classroom. Please bring your analyzed encounter, your character sheet, a pencil and a desire to make the PCs suffer multiple shortbow attacks from a goblin horde. Oh, wait! Spoiler! Forget that last one.

Spirit Week is coming to an end Hillcrest and we were blown away by all the spirit that we showcased over the past week. Great work to everyone who participated in the events, the cheering, and the thematic days. Each and everyone of you, made Spirit week a great week so thank you!

Spirit Squad we will be meeting for a final thank you, today at lunch in the MPR. If you were part of the squad, come on down for a short meeting and some food.

Today is the last day for donations to the Share Food Drive and the Holiday Hampers. A big thank you to everyone for your generous donations.

Teachers, please send your bins or boxes down to the office this morning, even if it's empty. We need all bins and boxes returned. We will announce the winners at the end of the day today.
