

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday, June 02, 2023

Reader 1: Good morning, Hillcrest. We have a guest presenter for today's D&D Club message.

Reader 2: Yes, indeed. This morning's announcement about the D&D Club meeting today after school is written and presented by renowned French mime, Marcel Marceau. Please pay careful attention.

Reader 1: (Stay silent for 4 seconds. Totally. Silent. Count to 4 in your head. As you count in your head, move your hands up and down as if you are stuck inside an invisible box. Seriously. Try it. Fully take on the Marcel Marceau role! He's a mime. Mime's are silent actors. Sounds crazy but it's true.)

Reader 2: Thanks, Marcel. That was a powerful representation of what it might be like to be stuck inside a gelatinous cube.

Reader 1: (Pause for a second and bow.)

Reader 2: You're welcome.

Choir members please meet Ms. Plesko in Room 150 today at Nutrition Break for a quick meeting.

Last night was the grade 8 district badminton finals and what a night it was. Representing the grade 8 Hillcrest girls were Charlin Joss and Wynona Hockey, who displayed some fabulous teamwork and rallies. Representing the grade 8 boys we had Alex Zou and Wesley Xu, who were to be eliminated by another Hillcrest team in Andrew Matheson and Soroosh Zarei who made it quite far into the tournament before being eliminated. Our last team not only made it to the finals but went undefeated the entire time. Your new district champions are Will Bardsley and Harry Ng! Congrats to you two boys who had a much deserved win and congratulations to all the athletes who attended, you represented Hillcrest exceptionally well.
