

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monday, June 19, 2023

Hello Talented Hillcresters! We are all getting very excited about the Hillcrest hasTalent show coming up in just over a week!

There will be a mandatory meeting for all talent show participants tomorrow at 12:39 in the MPR. Please let Mr. Ross or Mr. Marshall know if you are unable to attend. We will be running through the show in order ... but you won't have to perform. We will be taking notes and collecting information about what equipment you need, staging requirements, and so on.

If you were a host for your Team MasterChef competition, please come to the Home Ec room at lunch today.

Any grade 8 student wanting to do a Fashion Walk at the Talent Show, should come to the Home Ec room tomorrow right at the start of lunch.
