

Internationally Trained Human Service Worker Program

Tri-Cities Intercultural Workplace Project

A full time 5 month program that combines advanced English language work based skills and hands-on Canadian work experience within a Human Service organization in the Tri-Cities

Applicants must be:

- Internationally trained human service professionals with documented credentials and experience in positions such as: Early Childhood educator, Mental Health worker, Home Health Care worker, Child & Youth Care worker, Counsellor, Community Advocate
- A Tri-Cities resident who is either a Permanent Resident or a Canadian citizen
- Have an assessed intermediate level of the English language and previous training in the human services field.

Program Goals:

- Bridge internationally acquired training in the human service sector into the Canadian labour market
- Increase your awareness of business culture in the professional human services workplace and workplace etiquette
- Develop an understanding of idiomatic and workplace language in a professional setting
- Increase your theoretical knowledge of the Canadian human services field
- Develop Canadian work experience in your field

Where: David Lam (Coquitlam) Campus, Douglas College (Classroom based component) and work experience placement in a Tri-Cities Human Service organization

When: March 9 - August 12, 2010

Fee: to be determined

Allowance: $400/month

Registration is limited to 18 participants

For more information, please contact: Sharon Goldberg, Tri-Cities Intercultural Workplace Program Manager @ 604-777-6503 or sharon.goldberg@success.bc.ca.

The Tri-Cities Intercultural Workplace Project is led by S.U.C.C.E.S.S. in partnership with Douglas College and more than 12 human service organizations in the Tri-Cities.

This project is made possible through funding from the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia.