

Search continues

Coquitlam RCMP, along with family, friends and community members are continuing to search for missing 64-year-old Shin Noh, who went out for a walk last Wednesday and hasn't been seen since. A search headquarters has been established at Noh's son's business in Port Moody. Please see page 3

Save Hundreds $$
on all in stock RIC hearing aid technology Better hearing starting at just $29.95
See page 25 for details

The Hear More Spend Less event!

THE FRIDAY

TRI-CITY NEWS

SEPT. 27, 2013

www.tricitynews.com

Black Press

INSIDE

Letters/12
Books Plus/20
Business/30
Sports/38-39

Cross-border Shopping

SEE FACE TO FACE, PAGE 11

Cultural days

SEE THINGS-TO-DO GUIDE, PAGE 19

JANIS WARREN/THE TRI-CITY NEWS

Left: Terry Fox's brother, Fred, joined Ceri Watkins, the principal at Coquitlam's R.C. MacDonald elementary, on Thursday for the Terry Fox National School Day Run. The 135 students in kindergarten to Grade 5 heard Fred Fox speak about the Port Coquitlam hometown hero before running a few blocks in his honour. Above: Brandon Dyke sports a Terry Fox tattoo on his cheek during the assembly.

School runs raise majority of funds

By Janis Warren
THE TRI-CITY NEWS

The brother of Terry Fox ran with more than 130 students at a Coquitlam elementary school yesterday for the Terry Fox National School Run Day.

Fred Fox was at R.C. MacDonald elementary on Thursday to talk about growing up with Terry and to unveil a school banner to mark 20 years of fundraising for cancer research in the late Port Coquitlam hero's name.

Last year, the school generated an unprecedented $5,000 for the Terry Fox Foundation, said principal Ceri Watkins.

Around the Tri-Cities — and across Canada — thousands of students this week took part in the annual event, which collects about 60% of the foundation's revenues per year.

Locally, schools staged a number of activities in an effort to bring in cash for the cause: Coquitlam River elementary had a student dye his hair pink while another shaved his hair; Kilmer elementary also had student and parent head shaves; and, at Gleneagle secondary, Bruce Moore — Terry's high school soccer coach and a cancer survivor — rallied the students before their run.

At R.C. MacDonald,

many of the children — including those in kindergarten who had never heard of Terry Fox before — sported stickers on their shirts to show who they were running for or who had been touched by the same disease that took Fox's life in 1981.

SEE STUDENTS, PAGE 4

Stabbing in Coq.

One man is in hospital with non life-threatening injuries and another is in jail after a stabbing occurred in Coquitlam Wednesday night.

The incident took place just after 10:30 p.m. near Johnson Street and Guildford Way when an altercation broke out between four to five people. Coquitlam RCMP Cpl. Jamie Chung said the suspect and the victim knew each other and police are still interviewing witnesses.

"Charges are pending," he said. "It depends on what we find out."

The suspect was arrested and police said the investigation is ongoing.