Two exciting summer camps to inspire your kids, boost confidence and get them actively engaged in performing arts.

The award winning Theatrix Youth Theatre Society is pleased to present Lunchbox Theatre Summer Camp, and FAME JR - Teen Triple Threat Boot Camp, July 22 – 26, 2013, at the Evergreen Cultural Centre, Coquitlam, from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm.

Lunchbox Theatre Summer Camp is an extension of the wildly successful theatre program that was available in select SD43 elementary schools during the school year. Designed to introduce basic performing arts skills to children aged 6 to 12, the camp includes four classes each day.

Film Stars - an introduction to on-camera and audition techniques including slating, types of shots, script terminology, monologues, storyboarding, relating to partners, handling product, characterization and marks.

Actor's Playground - Starting with improv and working up to short scenes and stories, kids learn what it takes to create believable characters and relationships on stage. This class will look at how to create a character using our voices, bodies and minds. Kids will learn the groundwork of acting skills as well as confidence, awareness and comprehension skills through a mix of theatre games, improv and scene work.

Musical Theatre - This class integrates the performing art forms of acting, dancing, and singing. Students will learn music and choreography.

Backstage Pass - Elements of theatre production will be studied including lighting, sound, makeup, prop and set making. We will also look at clowning, stage combat and other special forms.

A performance at the end of the camp highlights the students newly acquired skills.

Fame Jr. is geared to the 12-17 age groups. Students in this Triple Threat Boot Camp focus on singing, dancing, and acting skills on the set of Fame Jr. for five days, with two performances at the Evergreen Cultural Centre on day six, Saturday July 27th. Choreographer is Nicole Roberge, Riverside drama teacher.

FAME JR. is the bittersweet but ultimately inspiring story of a diverse group of students as they commit to four years of grueling artistic and academic work at New York City's celebrated High School for the Performing Arts. With candor, humor and insight, the show explores the issues that confront many young people today with a fun and high energy, contemporary pop score, including the iconic song, FAME! Spend a week with experienced directors and learn how to become a TRIPLE THREAT!

Early bird discount in effect until June 30th.
